

- Perform basic diagnostic tests
- Prep patients for physician visits and lay out instruments and equipment to be used
- Update patient's medical records
- Discuss treatment plans with patient and family members
- Inform patient regarding medicine usage and expected side effects
- Perform complex administration and reporting tasks

Advanced Medical Technologies and Equipment

Patient Advocacy

Wound Irrigation

Languages

English, French, German

Oct 2019 — Oct 2019

Langley

Staff Nurse I at Virginia Military Rehab Center

Spearheaded the automation of admissions and discharge procedures which reduce processing time from 45 minutes to 15 minutes.

- Provides primary nursing care to patients like washing, taking blood pressure and feeding
- Assist patients with completing admission and discharging forms
- Accompany senior nurse on ward rounds
- Keep a record of medication administering frequencies
- Check IV's and blood pressure at predetermine frequencies
- Prep patients for theatre procedures
- Perform basic administration and reporting tasks

Education

Oct 2019 — Present

Chicago

Joliet University

Master of Science Degree in Nursing

Jan 2014 — Jun 2016

New Parkland

University of California

Bachelor of Applied Science in Nursing (RN)

Oct 2019 — Oct 2019

Seattle

American Nurses Association Programme, St John's Hospital

Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN)

Clinical Rotations: Pediatrics 100 hours, Obstetrics 90 hours, Cardio-thoracic 110 hours

Courses

Jan 2018 — Jun 2018

Basic Life Support (BLS) for Healthcare Providers, American Heart Association at-Mecosta Medical Center, Traverse City

Jan 2017 – Jan 2017

Progressive Care Certified Nurse (PCCN),- at District of Columbia Nurses Association
(DCNA)